1. When He told the twelve the Son of Man had to die,
They could not imagine how it all could come true.
When He said that He would rise and overcome death,
How could anyone know what God would do?
How could anyone know what God would do?

CHORUS:

My Lord is risen today, Have you heard the news?
My Lord is risen today, Have you heard the news?
In the garden where they took him
to a borrowed tomb
The stone has rolled away.
Where they lay Him in the cold grave
He is there no more,
My Lord He lives today.

2. Mary wept that morning when the gardener spoke:
"Tell me whom you seek and why it is that you grieve?"
Mary answered "Have you taken Him away?"
When he turned and called her name she believed.
When he turned and called her name she believed.

3. Jesus said to Mary "Go and tell them I live".
Mary told the Lord's disciples what she had seen.
Still today the message finds a place in our heart
When we hear He lives and know what that means.
When we hear He lives and know what that means.
